1. Oh, the lights out - side, they're as bright as the sun, — they're much bright-er than an - y - one. Oh, the girls in the queue, yes, they're wait-ing for you, — well, they're wait - ing for their song to be sung. And when the 13

7

10

night turns to day_ and all_ the peo-ple go a-way, it's not the same_ tell me who's to blame? And when the stars shine so bright on the cold_ De - cem - ber night_ I wish that I_ — was on that stage_ — Oh, won't you take a ride with me through the 22

16

19

Bar-row-land_ his-to-ry_ and I'll_ sing you a song or two.

25

Peo-ple they may stop and stare but ba-by I, I just don't care, it's on-ly me and 28

you. And the drink and dance and drugs, you know, it's all a part of the show we go to,

31

— may-be I should tell you that peo-ple they may stop and stare but

To Coda ◊

ba-by, I, just don't care, to-night it's on-ly me and you.

2. Oh, no - thing beats the feel - ing of the high - Bar - row - land ceil - ing when the band starts to play. Won't you buy me a drink and I'll tell her what I think if she gets in my way. And when the

43

46

And when the night turns to day_ and the lights_ they fade a-way_ I wish that life and love would pass me by, and when the band starts a song_ be-cause there's some-

63

66

- thing go-ing on_ well, there is ma-gic in the air I swear. And I wish that I_ saw Bow-ie, play-ing on_ that stage, I wish that I_ saw some-thing, to make

69
