From the mo-ment the lights went off, — ev - 'ry - thing had changed. —

Lie a - wake in an emp - ty room, — in my head it all feels the same. —

Like the taste of the day you left — that still lin - gers on my breath —
Three more days 'til I see your face, — I'm a - fraid it's far to much. — and the damp-ness of tears that left a stain where you had wept. —

Cook a meal, — fix up the place, — dial your num-ber, hang it up. —

All a-long with the neg-li-gee — that still hangs off of my bed, —
If I took you for grant-ed, I — 'pol-o-gize for act-ing tough. —

Cm Ab Eb Bb/D

I keep mean-ing to give it a-way but it just leave it there in- stead. —
You're my rea-son for liv-ing and — there's no way — I'm giv-ing up. —
